

Congratulations on taking this first step toward your interest in a Khmer education!

Please take a moment to consider the commitment you are making by entering this partnership with CACO school. By signing this letter, you acknowledge that your success in the program will depend upon your dedication and willingness to complete each step to the best of your ability, just as we commit to providing the best quality of coaching and support along the way.

If I am accepted to be in class, I will be committed to the followings:

1. I will attend the class meetings regularly and punctually according to the class schedule.
2. I will be respectful of the teachers and other classmates.
3. I will understand my responsibilities and expectations of this class including homework assignments and preparation for each class when required.
4. I will participate with my classmates and teachers in any activity related to the classroom and learning materials.
5. I will be responsible for my own devices for learning.
6. I will notify the teacher about my absence or tardiness.
7. I must make-up any classes that I miss. Any justified missed classes must be completed when the next available class starts.
8. I will provide true and accurate information.
9. I understand that I can be dismissed from class if above commitments are not reasonably followed.
10. I understand that I have rights to leave or drop classes.

If you have any concern or comment about the school program or policies, you may ask to speak to one of our CACO representatives by using this email khmer.school@cacoregon.org.

I have read this form. I understand my rights and responsibilities in the class. I agree to follow the rules of the class. I understand the class will share information to help me get the right services and succeed in the class. Your information will be kept confidential.

I understand and agree to the above:
